GREEN GOODS.

A Pair of Bad Men Fall Out.

Now They Are Both In For It.

The Old Green Goods Racket Played Again.

Two Citizens of Missouri Bite and Then One Accuses the Other of Dishonesty.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—P. T. Johnson, a well-known citizen of Blue Springs, is in jail here charged with fraud. Matthew Scott of Blue Springs preferred the charge. Last November Scott and Johnson agreed to go into partnership and purchase "green goods." For several months previous Johnson and Scott have been in correspondence with a New York dealer in green goods, and arranged for a meeting in St. Louis, when the goods were shown and tested, and the New York man agreed to let them have $10,000 worth for $800. Johnson and Scott returned home and raised the money and again went to St. Louis to make the trade, and met the New Yorker at the same place. The New Yorker had two carpet bags, in one of which he carried the money. Johnson purchased the other bag, and they paid over the $800. The three men then separated. Johnson and Scott shipped the bag containing the money by express to this city. When a sufficient time had elapsed for the money to arrive by express they repaired to the express office, where Johnson was identified. He was somewhat nervous, but the ordeal was soon over and the two went to a room they had rented to examine their prize. They found on examining the bag that it had been tampered with and, as they at first thought, between Kansas City and St. Louis. When taken from the express office it contained but six dollars in good currency, the rest of the contents consisting of rags and similar worthless material. Finally Scott came to the conclusion that Johnson was responsible for his loss and has had him arrested.

IS IT CANCER?

Diseased Portions of Cleveland's Jaw Removed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—Mr. Ferdinand Hasbrouck, a prominent physician, says that on July 1st, he assisted Dr. Bryant and another surgeon in a surgical operation on President Cleveland.

The president was put under the influence of gas and a diseased growth in the bones of the upper jaw adjoining the bones of the nose were cut away. An inch or more of diseased bone was removed. When asked if the disease was cancerous in its nature, Dr. Hasbrouck said that was for Dr. Bryant to say. In order to facilitate the operation Dr. Hasbrouck removed two of President Cleveland's teeth.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS. The State Convention Meets at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—Chairman Reeder, of the Republican state central committee, called the Republican state convention to order in the opera house at noon today. An adjournment was taken after a short session to await the reports of the committees on credentials, temporary organization and resolutions. A full state ticket is to be nominated, and as the fight has failed to narrow down it is yet problematical which of a dozen aspirants will head the ticket.

REAL MEAN!

A Real Naughty Burglar, So He Was.

Failing to Find Any Thing Else, He Cut Off the Long Tresses of a Girl.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—Detectives are looking for a midnight burglar who seems to have a queer mania. Surprised in the act of burglarizing a residence by the daughter of the occupant early Thursday morning, he seized and attempted to sever her hair, which hung in a long braid. He was only partly successful. The police were not notified of the matter until Friday morning, but as they have a good description of the fellow, they have some hopes of catching him. The residence entered was that of John Kuchner, at No. 113 Carr street. Tillie, the daughter, is 23 years of age and pretty. She has a wealth of auburn hair, which she wears in a long braid during the night. About 3:30 o'clock Thursday morning she was awakened by a sensation as though some one was tugging at her hair. She jumped up and saw a negro bending over her. He had her hair clutched in one hand and held a knife in the other. She screamed, the negro uttered an oath and then severed half of the braid. He then ran to the window, jumped into the yard and disappeared. During his visit he secured a pair of diamond ear-rings and a gold necklace. Friday morning the police were notified.

CAUGHT HIM AT LAST.

W. P. Wentworth Arrested for Stealing Hotel Funds.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—William P. Wentworth, the Victoria hotel's bookkeeper, was arrested in Jersey City today on a charge of stealing $28,275 of funds belonging to the hotel. Wentworth has been missing since August 5. Detectives traced him to Pittsfield, Mass., and from there to Hamilton, Ont., then to Patchogue, L. I., to Clayton, Ont., to Saratoga and to a railway station in Jersey City, where he was about to take a train for the west. During his wanderings he had gone under the alias of J. H. Williams.

Wentworth was the representative of a large interest in the Victoria hotel, controlled by Mrs. Florentine Stanfield, guardian of her son, Douglas M. Stanfield, to whom it was willed by his grandfather, Mark M. Stanfield, of the big Boston dry goods house of Stanfield, Wentworth & Co. The Wentworth of that firm was the father of William P. Wentworth.

NOT A MAGNATE AFTER ALL.

The President of Three Paper Rail- roads Unable to Pay His Clerks.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—Albert E. Smith, president and promoter of the Oklahoma line, the "K. C. & T. R. R." and the "St. L. & G. R. R." and also a prominent church worker, it is alleged has disappeared mysteriously, and various creditors are beginning to lose hope. He had offices in the Wainwright building and was assisted in the work of booming his new railroads by a clerk and a stenographer, both of whom gave up good positions and are out of their salaries. The clerk asserts that he is also short $500 which he loaned to his employer. The last heard from Smith was three weeks ago, when Clerk Frank Strafe received a postal card saying he was on his way to Chicago.

THE PANIC BUSTED.

The Financial Clouds Pass Away.

Business Constantly Improving and a Prosperous Season Now Almost Assured.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—The Commercial Advertiser prints today a broadside of opinions upon the present commercial depression, gathered from all over the country. Most of these opinions are from men conversant with the condition of trade in their various localities, and it is to the effect that the worst of the depression has been passed and the near future will see a decided improvement in all the lines of commercial and manufacturing business. Encouraging opinions were received from the president of the Chicago Board of Trade, the president of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, the secretary of the Denver Chamber of Commerce, President Arnold, of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce; President Kelly, of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce; from Kansas City, New Orleans, Baltimore and Providence. In addition there are published a large number of opinions of prominent local merchants in various lines of business. The prevailing sentiment is that business has improved in the past week and will continue to improve next week and so on. Altogether the outlook is hopeful.

MURDERED BY HIGHWAYMEN.

Henry Helmick Killed While At- tempting to Escape.

DANVILLE, Ill., Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—While Henry Helmick and wife were returning home from church at Pilot Chapel, about twelve miles northeast of this city last night, two highwaymen grasped his horse's head while two other robbers leaped into the carriage. Mr. Helmick hit his horses with the whip and they reared, breaking loose from the highwaymen. At this moment one of the robbers fired, the ball entering the back of Mr. Helmick's head. He died instantly, falling into his wife's lap. The highwaymen then sprang out of the buggy, but continued firing as the horses plunged forward on the road. One shot narrowly missed the almost frantic wife.

This morning the highwaymen were tracked to the Big Four bridge at the west side of this city. The entire neighborhood is wild over the murder and the police of this city have joined in the search. The highwaymen held up three other parties on the same road previous to the attack on Helmick, securing, however, but little money.

Brighter Than for Weeks.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Comptroller Eckels said today: "Bank failures have almost ceased in all sections of the country. Only three or four have been reported this week and those are but temporary embarrassments and will not require receivers. A half dozen banks are resuming now to every one that suspends. Reports indicate that bankers are expecting less difficulty in making collections; that they have much more cash than a fortnight ago and are taking a hopeful view of the future."

IN THE SENATE.

The Bill for the Repeal Taken Up.

Senator Sherman is the First Speaker.

He Thinks That the Repeal is Justified.

The Silver Senators Threaten to Make the Debate One of Endur- ance Expecting a Compromise.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—In the senate the bill for the repeal of the Sherman act was taken up. Senator Sherman was the first speaker, and said if the repeal of the act was the only reason for the extra session, it seemed to himself insufficient.

The repeal was justified, however, by the existing financial stringency. The silver senators threaten to make the silver debate in the senate a question of endurance. Senator Teller announces that he has brought his winter clothes and is going to stay all winter, if necessary. Silver senators will filibuster again in the hope of forcing a compromise with the anti-silver men.

The house resumed the consideration of the rules.

THE CIRCLE CLEAR.

The Territory will Now Lay Aside the Broom.

The territory yesterday practically completed the task of cleaning the 400-yard limit. The three women Annie Marchand, Laura Moreau and Susie Drummond, arrested on Tuesday night, were taken before Justice Wharton and there paid the costs in the cases against them and promised to move out of the limit within forty-eight hours. While there are other women in the circle, clouded by suspicion, the prosecution admits the difficulty if not the impossibility of proving that their houses are places of prostitution. Monroe street between First and Second presents an abandoned appearance the like of which is not in the memory of the oldest old-timer.

The doors of many of the rooms which for years have been places of sin and licentious revelry have been nailed up and blue grass and Bermuda is beginning to spring up about the thresholds.

Alice Deechamps, who moved out of the circle and out of town without paying the $100 fine hanging over her, has been overtaken at Tucson and will be brought back this morning by Constable Briggs.

THE GRAND ARMY

Gathering to Be the Largest Yet Held

And Possibly the Largest That Ever Will Be Held for They Are Dying.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 30.—[Associated Press.]—As the time approaches for the Grand Army encampment, which takes place during the week beginning on September 4, it becomes more and more certain that the gathering of 1893 will be the largest yet held, and possibly the largest that ever will be held, as the time must be close at hand when the ranks of the organization will begin to thin instead of increasing year by year as they have done heretofore. As an indication of the large attendance that may be expected the fact is cited that the Indiana posts have already engaged accommodations for 20,000, and as five Hoosier visitors are expected for every veteran it is estimated that over a hundred thousand Indians will participate in the celebration. Illinois and Ohio have each spoken for quarters for nearly fifteen thousand, and as at least ten thousand veterans will come from more distant states the grand total cannot fall below 60,000. Decorations have already begun to appear in many parts of the city and promise to excel anything in the line ever attempted before. There are nearly twenty-five miles of asphalted streets in the central portion of the city, and this fact in connection with the numerous open parks will afford facilities for the parade that are not to be found in any other large city in the country with the exception of the national capital.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A. D. and J. W. McGinnis yesterday filed notice of the location of the Berkeley placer mining claim.

The 9-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark died yesterday morning of congestion of the brain.

J. H. Prince is making preparations for the reception of Mrs. Prince, who will arrive from California early next week.

Angel Bustamante was sentenced yesterday by Justice Wharton to fifteen days in the county jail for a disturbance of the peace.

Miss Myrtle Kendall, Miss Daisy Randall and Mrs. Martin returned yesterday from a delightfully spent outing at Camp Creek.

Notice of location of the Idaho mining claim in the Superstition district was filed yesterday by T. F. Hartman and Z. L. Robinson.

Judge Baker, who is now in San Francisco, will return to Yuma by next Monday, when the September term of district court will convene.

Secretary Bruce left last evening for Benson, where, after transacting some business, he will visit friends in Tombstone, Fort Huachuca, Lochiel and other places in the Huachuca and Babacomari districts.

If you want anything, if you have lost anything, if you are out of a job, or if you need help in your kitchen, you can have your desire gratified by advertising in our popular want column, six insertions for 15 cents.

Estanislado Rosas and Francisco Garcia were brought to jail from the South Side yesterday. The former is from Tempe, under a fifteen day's sentence, for a disturbance of the peace. The latter is a Papago, sent from Mesa for fifty days for carrying a deadly weapon.

A party of seven charming young ladies, consisting of three Miss Burdette, Miss Dorris, Miss Frymire and Miss Kruse, were escorted to camp meeting Tuesday evening by Messrs. Hambrook & Schorr in their furniture wagon.

The first load of pressed-face brick for the Fleming block was deposited yesterday upon the premises. They are very handsome, being exceedingly smooth and hard. They were made in Kansas City by the hydraulic process, each brick having been subjected to a twenty-ton pressure.

Mrs. V. C. Vane on Tuesday afternoon gave a 5 o'clock dinner, at which the guests were Governor Hughes, Mr. John Armstrong, his private secretary, Dr. Hamblin, superintendent of the insane asylum, and wife; Dr. W. L. Woodruff and wife, Mr. P. T. Burtis and Mrs. Kiekerson.

E. Grant Randall, a son of A. G. Randall of the undertaking firm of Randall & Davis, has joined Capt. A. B. Smith in the establishment of an agency at Tucson for the sale of the Golden Gate Gasoline Engine. During Capt. Smith's absence, Mr. Randall will have charge of the business.

Two of the county prisoners which were turned over to the city to work on the streets have escaped. Jailor Lindsey saw them start, turned loose on them with his gun and plowed the ground in their immediate locality. The shooting rather expedited their movement and when last seen they seemed to be gaining in speed. Both were Mexican strangers and six-months men. They will hardly return within the next six years so the county is ahead.

CHASING AN OFFICER

With a Writ of Habeas Cor- pus

Which However Is Brought Into Play About Two Hours Too Late.

There was a chase after a prisoner last night who would gladly have been overtaken. He was in charge of a deputy sheriff, however, who was anxious to escape.

Night before last Deputy Sheriff L. S. Drumm of Coconino county arrived in the city with a warrant for the arrest of D. W. Brown, charged with horse stealing. Brown was arrested the same night and quietly kept in the county jail until nearly 9 o'clock last night when the Coconino officer took him and left.

In the mean time habeas corpus proceedings had been instituted. An application for a writ was prepared by L. H. Chalmers and signed by Brown at 8:30. The writ was issued by Judge Jordan, returnable at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and was directed to the sheriff of this county for service on Drumm. At 10 o'clock it was filed, but the Coconino man was gone with his prisoner. He could not of course have left town by rail or stage, so that it was apparent that if he had gone at all he must have taken a private conveyance.

Mr. Chalmers was inclined to believe that he was still in town, trying to avoid the writ which he knew had been sworn out. He therefore insisted upon its attempted service. Deputy Sheriff Widmer proceeded to make a microscopic examination of the city of Phoenix but at midnight he had failed to discover a good specimen of Coconino county officials.

It is said that Drumm came from the north in a buckboard so that he would not be dependent upon the schedule time of railroads and stage lines in the event of just such an emergency as afterward arose so that when Deputy Widmer armed himself with the writ, he and his prisoner were facing the north star and were rapidly getting closer to it.

The prisoner has lived in and about Phoenix for four years, though not continuously, and has a fair reputation. The authorities here are inclined to believe that he is innocent, but Drumm believes that he has got the man he wants.

Two Better Than One.

Teacher.—We have been taught to forgive those who spitefully use us, but when Johnny Muggs hit you, what did you do?

Boy.—I hit him back; but that was only so he'd have something to forgive, too.—Good News.

No Wonder He Swore.

Mrs. Fussy.—Dear! dear! I wonder what makes the parrot swear so?

Mr. Fussy (who has his own views on the subject).—I suppose he has picked up the remarks that the neighbors make about him.—Texas Sittings.
